

Attention High School Seniors!!

Are you interested in any of these growing fields?

- Own and run a greenhouse, a landscape service or lawn care, orchard, vegetable farm, flower and plant shop, garden center, or nursery.
- Landscape design
- Sales of wholesale or retail seed, gardening supplies, flowers, plants, fresh fruits and/ or vegetables
- Plant Scientist—research in all phases of plant development/ control of
- Plant Pest Expert
- Weed / insect control services
- Teacher at high school, college or post-college level in agriculture / horticulture
- Inspector of plants and plant products
- Agriculture Chemical Sales
- Tree specialist/ tree service technician
- Urban forester
- Forest ranger
- Timber assessor
- Soils scientist
- Floral designer/ Florist
- Plant pathologist
- Habitat restoration expert
- And many more...

The Greene County Master Gardeners will award a $500 scholarship to a Greene County high school senior who intends to pursue a college degree leading to any of the many careers in horticulture or plant-related fields of study.

Applications are due by April 15, 2019.